Duncannon EMS presented their financial report tonight to the supervisors. The information will be reviewed for next month's meeting.

Jim Fuller advised those in attendance that Dianne Dahlin will be recording the meeting tonight.

Annette Mullen made a motion to donate $750 to Kyle Barrick for his Eagle Scout Project he presented to the supervisors at last month's meeting, Barry Schrope second the motion, with all in favor.

The Prevailing Wage Resolution was discussed again. Barry Schrope stated he has looked over it and does not know enough about prevailing wage. Annette Mullen stated she is not interested in adopting the resolution. Jim Fuller stated he does not like prevailing wage because of the increase to the price of jobs. Jim Fuller stated he is in favor of adopting the resolution. Issue tabled again until next month's meeting.

Annette Mullen stated her and Jerry Fry (PennDot worker) did a road inspection and has looked at the tile on Creek Road and it is busted and cracked. Jim stated the tile is just bad on the one end where it is damaged. Annette asked Barry to go and look at the tile. Annette stated they also seen some major problems that might have to be fixed. Annette stated Linton Hill Road (along Shermans Creek) is collapsing and the bank is washed out by the guiderails, the tiles on Hunkey Hollow and Dugans Mills Road are both rotting underneath and the road is sinking. Annette stated she would like for John Madden to look at the tile on Creek Road. Jim stated he is well able to determine and to fix the tile if it needs fixed. Annette stated she does not think all of Roseglen Road needs seal coated, just the section between Windy Hill Road and Dellville Road, McNaughton Drive has cracks, and Wheatfield Estates has some cracks. Barry Schrope made a motion to advertise for bids for the 2012 paving and seal coat projects, Jim Fuller second the motion, with all in favor. Paving bids to be received for Pine Hill Road and Glutzs Hole Road and Seal Coat bids to be received for Roseglen Road.

Jim Fuller stated according to the minutes Annette Mullen asked the supervisors at the January meeting if she could go to the Auditors and ask if there was interest in helping the supervisors develop an employee handbook. Jim stated no official action was ever taken by the supervisors after it was discussed with the auditors. Annette Mullen made a motion to work with the auditors in developing a handbook, Barry Schrope second the motion, Jim Fuller opposed.

Jim Fuller advised Community Days at the Shermanata Grange would be held Saturday, April 14th. Jim Fuller advised he would go and represent Wheatfield Township.

Jim Fuller advised recycling is this coming Saturday and Spring Cleanup is April 19 – 21st. The secretary will develop a resident list for Spring Cleanup.

Vicki Jenkins stated she thought as supervisors one of the duties was to do road inspections together and that is what the F250 truck was bought for. Instead of individually going and observing different things.
